Paige Graham is a tax senior manager and has been in the public accounting profession for nearly a decade with all of that time at HoganTaylor. She provides tax compliance and tax consulting services for a wide range of industries and businesses but specializes in two industries: the oil and gas industry and the restaurant industry.

Paige has a passion for people. She has overseen the development of multiple initiatives to ensure people remain connected through the pandemic. Paige also has a passion for development and has piloted a number of initiatives for training and development with her team.

Outside of the firm, Paige is an advocate for mental health, of ending the cycle of poverty, and of ending the cycle of abuse. She has previously served on the board of directors for The Hope Center and has also served on the board of directors for Family Builders. She is an alumni of Leadership Edmond and is a 2018 Oklahoma Magazine 40 Under 40 honoree.

Graham is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and an Accredited Petroleum Accountant (APA). She received her Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of Central Oklahoma.
