Tony Otto has more than 20 years of experience in the area of taxation with an emphasis on closely-held organizations and family wealth. His experience encompasses a broad range of industry segments including oil and gas, manufacturing and distribution, construction, personal service, and trucking. He has also developed considerable expertise in the areas of gift and estate planning.

In addition to his expertise in tax, Tony carries the Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) credential accredited by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). ABV credential holders have a specific experience, education and examination requirement that sets them apart from other CPAs with respect to their knowledge and expertise in business valuation. He is also a Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA) certified by the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts (NACVA).

Tony is HoganTaylor's service area lead overseeing the Tax Division. In addition, he serves on the operations committee to the firm's Board of Directors. Tony is also on the team of HT Disciplined Investments, L.L.C., a wholly owned subsidiary of HoganTaylor that offers financial planning and investment management services.

Tony has been an active volunteer in the community. He has served in the Tulsa Chapter of the Oklahoma Society of CPA's and on the Board of Directors for the Susan G. Komen for the Cure Tulsa Affiliate. Tony also served his former church in numerous financial capacities.

Prior to becoming a member of HoganTaylor in 1993, Tony worked for a local practitioner where he performed tax planning and compliance projects as well as accounting services for numerous family owned businesses located in northeast Oklahoma.
